

Be set to be inspired, entertained and moved by our Speakers at Conference.

All three are very different, but all experts in their field. Your horizons will be broadened, your knowledge extended as you listen to what they have to tell us.

Why not come and join the audience.... There are still a few days left to register for Conference Can't come for the Weekend? Then why not register just for the day!

Click here to register - <https://forms.gle/zqbNEnVjTZZWFqeD8>

District Fifteen Conference 2024 Speakers

Magele Maria Uluilata

Woven Values - Weaving a Legacy of Service & Connection

Magele Maria Uluilata, a respected leader and advocate for equity, is the Chief Advisor Pacific at Ohu Ahumahi Workforce Development Councils. With a passion for community-driven initiatives, she is committed to supporting and empowering Pacific communities in Aotearoa.

Magele's extensive experience in the public sector and governance has seen her hold various leadership positions, honing her skills in organisational transformation, operational excellence, service design, communication, and stakeholder relations. Her work with communities and key stakeholders has built trust and fostered enduring partnerships founded on respect and collaboration.

Born and raised in Porirua, Wellington, Magele is of Samoan descent and holds the chiefly title of Magele from the village of Iva. Her family is at the heart of all she does, bringing a strong sense of purpose and connection to her work.

In her upcoming talk, Magele will delve into the transformative power of storytelling and its role in fostering connections. She will share her insights on how storytelling serves as a powerful tool for bridging gaps, fostering understanding, and promoting unity among diverse groups. Furthermore, she will discuss the concept of service as a unifying force, believing that serving others can foster mutual respect and understanding, creating a harmonious community.

Charlotte Grimshaw

If It Sounds Too Good To Be True

Charlotte is currently a Licensed Private Investigator mainly works in the corporate and legal fields as opposed to undertaking domestic investigations.

When she arrived in New Zealand in 1999 Charlotte worked as an Investigator for the Serious Fraud Office and before that was a Detective in the Metropolitan Police in London for nearly 20 years.

Charlotte will give an overview of her life as a Police officer and as an Investigator informing and educating about scams and how to avoid them.

John Howlett

Childrens' Homes, Asylums, Fancy Dress Shops, Hypnotherapy and Local Radio have little in common But John has led an interesting life, partly in the Voluntary and Therapy sectors. Prepare to be entertained.

One World - Celebrating Diversity

